The topic " The Teachings of the Scriptures in Respect of the Support of the Ministry " was discussed by Dr. N. F. Roberts and Rev. H. T. Cook.

The support of the ministry is ordained of God. 1st Cor. 9:14.

The minister is worthy of good pay. 1st Tim. 5:17, 18.

Christ instructed the apostles that they should live by the gospel. Luke 10:7, Matt. 10:10.

These were some of the points brought out in the discussion.

A collection of 85 cents was taken. The Association then adjourned with benediction.

Sister Lena Dunn paid $1 for missions.

Evening Session.

The Association was called to order at 8 o'clock. The opening exercises were conducted by Rev. J. A. Whitted. Rev. G. W. Perry read a part of Phil. 1 and 2, and offered prayer. Hymn "A Charge to Keep I Have," was then sung.

Bro. Perry was presented to the Association and took for a text Phil. 1:27.

Oneness in the work of Christ was the theme.

1. Oneness is a necessity in the common affairs of life. Christ prayed for it; the apostles urged it; the first church was noted for it. It is good and God-like.

2. There must be a oneness in the faith in the gospel, faith in the one Christ, called precious faith.

3. This faith is one in its origin—the Holy Spirit.

4. One in effect—works by love.

5. One in its object—glorifies Christ. Jesus Christ is the object of faith.

6. This one faith produces oneness of action. Believers know each other.

7. Believers must stand firm in this faith.

These are some of the points brought out in this able sermon.

At the conclusion of the sermon, Bro. Whitted led in prayer.

"My hope is built on nothing less," etc., was sung by the congregation.

Rev. D. J. Avery then spoke on the topic, "Christian Training the Demand of the Age."

"The children of the world are wiser than the children of light." Bro. Avery said: "Women train their vines in the flower garden; men train their horses to accomplish a certain object; but how few give their children a Christian training. There is too much scolding and threatening. This is not training. Without Christian training there will be no growth in Christlikeness. Our people must be trained to obey the gospel; must be trained to give for Christian work; must be trained to respect our neighbors."

The amount of $1.64 was taken for the mission work.

Benediction was pronounced by Rev. G. W. Perry.

It was ordered that the first half hour of the afternoon session be set apart for the consideration of the BAPTIST SENTINEL.
